2. Course description:

Introduction:

Latin 201 is an Internet course offered through Blackboard.

You will need a University e-mail account and password to access this course.

If you do not have an account, go to this site:

<https://www.ucalgary.ca/itutil?process=WebRegister> and follow the instructions to obtain an account. If you should experience any problems contact:

itsupport@ucalgary.ca .

The Final Exam for this course will be an in-class written exam that will be scheduled by the registrar during the Spring Term exam period (June 28-30, 2010). All students will be required to write the exam on the University of Calgary campus on the date to be set by the registrar.

The duration of this course is six weeks. This course will cover the first 18 chapters of Wheelock's Latin. Approximately 3-4 chapters of Wheelock MUST be mastered every week. Please note that the Internet site will not provide the actual text of Wheelock. The site will provide you with commentaries on the chapters from the text-book, keys to the exercises in the text and supplementary exercises. The quizzes, midterm exam and assignments will also all take place on the web site.

As a final note, this class is intensive in nature. To be successful in this course a minimum of 20 hours must be devoted to this class per week. Although this is an Internet based course (i.e. no scheduled class time), you will have the opportunity to meet with the instructor by making an appointment. If you should have any further questions, please do not hesitate to get in touch (bnatali@ucalgary.ca).

One week prior to the course you will be able to access the Latin 201 site with your campus e-mail address and password.

Course date: May 17–Jun 25, 2010.

Location: <http://blackboard.ucalgary.ca/webapps/login>

Meeting day(s): Not applicable: THIS COURSE IS RUN ON-LINE.
