Required Text:

World Religions: A Guide to the Essentials. Thomas A. Robinson and Hillary P. Rodrigues
Grand Rapids, MI: Baker Academic, 2014.

Note: The textbook is required as listed above. If a student acquires an older edition of the text book in any format and intends to use the older edition rather than the required edition, it is the responsibility of the student to compare the older edition with the newer edition to determine the material that may be different between the editions. If a student has access to an online version that is without page numbers, it is the responsibility of the student to synchronize the readings with the required textbook.

In addition to the textbook readings, students will be required to read select excerpts from online sources of sacred texts and primary sources. Links will be posted on D2L.

Course Description:

This course will introduce eastern religions focusing on Hinduism and Buddhism, with some attention to Jainism, Confucianism, Daoism, and Sikhism. Each tradition will be presented according to its historical background, cultural context(s), textual tradition, leading figures, institutions, practices, and beliefs/philosophies. Students will be guided through an introductory reading of select excerpts of sacred texts (in English translation). Special attention will be given to understandings of self, the theistic spectrum, the human condition, liberation, ritual, devotion, moral teachings, aspects of authority, philosophy, sectarianism, reformation, and dimensional analysis.

The course will be composed of four modules:

- Module 1 Introduction to the Study of Religion (chapter one)
- Module 2 Hinduism (chapter six)
- Module 3 Jainism and Buddhism (chapters seven and eight)
- Module 4 Chinese Religions and Sikhism (chapters nine and ten)

Online elements for this course:

Accessing online sources. Links will be posted on D2L.

Core Competencies:

Upon completion of this course, students will become familiar with the following in relation to eastern religious traditions:

- key terms and concepts in the study of religion
- disciplinary approaches to the study of religion
- dimensional analysis of religion
- founders and influential figures
- chronological development and key events
- critical teachings, doctrines, and creeds
- sources of law and ethics
- rituals, practices, festivals, and holy days
- scriptures and authoritative texts
- sacred geography, architecture, and iconography
- reformation and sectarianism
- the introduction of eastern religions to North America

Course Requirements:

Date	Assessment	Weight (%)
September 20	Module 1 Test (includes Module 1 course material, including lectures and assigned readings)	10%
October 16	Module 2 Test (includes Module 2 course material, including lectures and assigned readings)	30%
November 20	Module 3 Test (includes Module 3 course material, including lectures and assigned readings)	35%
To be scheduled by the Registrar's Office during the examination period (December 9-19)	Final Exam (includes Module 4 course material, including lectures and assigned readings)	25%

Final Examination Period:

The final exam will be scheduled by the Registrar. Students must be available to write the final exam on the day and time set by the Registrar's Office, up to the last day of the examination period as specified in the Academic Schedule. The dates of the final exam period are December 9-19. A final exam cannot be deferred for misreading the final examination schedule or accommodating travel plans or work schedules. Valid reasons include illness or personal emergency, religious observance, or domestic affliction. Students with three exams in 24 hours may defer one of their exams to the deferred final examination period. For further information see Deferred Exams <https://www.ucalgary.ca/registrar/exams/deferred-exams>

Grading:

A numerical mark will be given for each course requirement. A letter grade will be assigned on the following number and letter grade scheme, standardized within the Department of Classics and Religion:

A+	100 - 96	A	95 - 90	A-	89 - 85
B+	84 - 80	B	79 - 75	B-	74 - 70
C+	69 - 65	C	64 - 60	C-	59 - 55
D+	54 - 53	D	52-50	F	Under 50

N.B. All written assignments will be graded with regard to both form and content.

Adjusted Final Grades:

The instructor will implement a standard measure of adjustment (.5%) for final grades. For example, a final grade of 64.5% (C) will be rounded up to 65% (C+). Please do not send email inquiries asking the instructor to increase or 'round up' your final grade.

Extra Assignments:

There are no extra assignments for this course. Students will not be given an opportunity to submit extra work or retake tests to increase their grade.

Weighting of Coursework:

The weighting for coursework is identified above. The weighting of coursework cannot be changed per the University Calendar - E.1 Course Outlines.

Policy with regard to missed assessments:

If a student misses a test due to illness or an emergency, the student must provide the instructor with supporting documentation (U of C Statutory Declaration completed form required) within 72 hours of the absence. Except in cases of extenuating circumstances, if documentation is not provided within 72 hours the student will not be provided an opportunity to make up the test and will receive a numerical mark of zero.

If a makeup test is approved by the instructor, the student must take the initiative to arrange a time to complete the test within one week from the date of the missed test. If a student is unable to complete the test within one week from the date of the missed test, an extension will be provided if a student provides supporting documentation. NOTE: If a student cancels or fails to show up for the makeup test, another U of C Statutory Declaration completed form will be required to account for the missed makeup test.

Reviewing Tests:

Tests for this course will not be returned. Students are encouraged to make an appointment with the instructor or TA to review their test results.

Midterm Test Deferrals:

To accommodate students that have scheduling conflicts between RELS 203 tests and tests from other U of C courses, the instructor's policy is as follows: A student may request to write a RELS 203 test on an alternate date if the student has two or more other tests scheduled on the SAME day that are each worth more than 25% of their final grade. A RELS 203 test will not be rescheduled to accommodate an assignment deadline in another course. The instructor must receive the deferral request at least two weeks before the scheduled date of the RELS 203 test. Please request accommodation in writing (email).

Expectations for student conduct in this course:

In general, please be courteous toward other students in the course. Be respectful of class time. For students who raise questions during class, please contribute to the resourceful use of classroom time by limiting the number of questions you ask in each class. Be respectful of class space. Be considerate of the shared learning environment. Avoid distracting behavior and activities. Focus on objective inquiry. While critical evaluation is permitted in this course, students are encouraged to steer inquiries toward objective investigation rather than confessional or adversarial agendas.

Expectations for email correspondence in this course:

All email correspondence from students must be sent from a U of C email account. Please do NOT send emails from other accounts, such as Gmail or Hotmail. Please include the subject of your email and clearly identify yourself by name and the course you are registered in. Please do not send email inquiries related to dates and deadlines. Students shall refer to the university calendar, course outline, and final exam schedule for schedule information. Inquiries related to tests, exams, or assignments must be sent no less than 24 hours before a deadline. The instructor will reply to emails on business days.

Electronic Device Policy:

Laptops are permitted during class if used for the purpose of taking lecture notes. Do not use laptops during class for email, Facebook, or other social or recreational activities. Cell phones must be turned off during the entire class time. Texting during class is not permitted. Taking pictures in the classroom is not permitted, including picture-taking of data projector images and slides. Students that distract the instructor or other students due to the misuse of electronic devices during class will be asked to leave the classroom for the duration of the lecture.

Recording of lectures is prohibited without the consent of the instructor. According to Academic Regulations E.6, "With the permission of the instructor, students may tape record lectures, provided that the student and instructor sign a Release form available from departmental and faculty offices. A copy of the Release form shall be retained by the instructor and by the department in which the course is offered.” Regulation E.6 includes the notification to students, “Any use other than that described above constitutes academic misconduct and may result in suspension or expulsion.”

Policy on Inviting Guests:

Seating in the course is reserved for students registered in the course. Guests are permitted to attend a lecture if seats are available. Students wishing to invite guests to attend a lecture must obtain the permission of the instructor in advance. NOTE: Guests will not be permitted to ask questions or participate in class discussion.

Office hours:

Office hours are structured in 15-minute appointments. Sign-up sheets for appointments are posted on the instructor’s door at SS 516. If a student is not able to meet with the instructor during office hours, the student may request to meet at an alternative time during department hours. If a student requires an extended meeting, the student must make an appointment outside of the instructor’s scheduled office hours during department hours. Generally, extended meetings will not exceed 30 minutes and will be scheduled on a weekly basis according to the instructor’s availability. Students wishing to schedule an extended appointment must provide rationale in their request, e.g. a list of specific items requiring attention.

Note: The instructor will not be available for office hours after 4:00 pm on weekdays, at any time during the weekends, or during the Term Break (November 10-16).

Syllabus:

A complete syllabus will be made available the first week of class.

Academic Honesty:

Plagiarism is not tolerated at the University of Calgary and has serious consequences. Your essays/presentations must be your own work and inadequate referencing may be seen as plagiarism. Please see the relevant sections on Academic Misconduct in the current University Calendar (section K, which can be found here:

<http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html>). If you have questions about correct referencing, please consult your instructor, or librarian staff.

Student Accommodations:

Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services; SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit www.ucalgary.ca/access/.

Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor.

The full policy on Student Accommodations is available at http://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy\_0.pdf.

Freedom of Information and Privacy:

This course is conducted in accordance with the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (FOIPP): https://www.ucalgary.ca/hr/freedom\_of\_information\_and\_protection\_of\_privacy

The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act indicates that assignments given by you to your course instructor will remain confidential unless otherwise stated before submission. The assignment cannot be returned to anyone else without your express permission. Similarly, any information about yourself that you share with your course instructor will not be given to anyone else without your permission. As one consequence, students should identify themselves on all written work by placing their name on the front page and their ID number on each subsequent page.

Student Ombudsperson and Students' Union Representative:

The Student Ombuds Office provides independent, impartial and confidential support for students who require assistance and advice in addressing issues and concerns related to their academic careers. See <https://www.ucalgary.ca/ombuds/> for more information.

The Students' Union Faculty of Arts representative can be reached at arts1@su.ucalgary.ca.

Emergency Evacuation Assembly Point:

In case of an emergency evacuation during class, students must gather at the designated assembly point nearest to the classroom. The list of assembly points is found at www.ucalgary.ca/emergencyplan/assemblypoints. Please check this website and not the nearest assembly point for this course.

Safewalk:

The Safewalk program provides volunteers to walk students safely to their destination anywhere on campus (including McMahon Stadium, Health Sciences, Student Family Housing, the Alberta Children's Hospital and the University LRT station). This service is free and available to students, staff and campus visitors 24 hrs/day, 365 days a year. Call 403-220-5333 or use one of the Help phones located throughout campus to request a walk.

Health and Wellness:

There are services available to students to help with physical and mental health, including the SU Wellness Centre: <http://www.ucalgary.ca/wellnesscentre/>.

Learn more about the Campus Mental Health Strategy here: <https://www.ucalgary.ca/mentalhealth/>.

Supporting Documentation and the Use of a Statutory Declaration:

Students who are absent from class assessments (tests, participation activities, or other assignments) should inform their instructors as soon as possible. Instructors may request that evidence in the form of documentation be provided and the student should provide the documentation they feel best supports their case. For information on possible forms of documentation, including statutory declarations, please see <https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/m-1.html>.
