Required Books:

There will be no required textbook, but a dictionary will be needed. Students can purchase one from the instructor.

General Remarks:

This course is a continuation of the introductory course of the Classical Tibetan Language

Course Content:

This course will utilize the alphabet and basic grammar learned in the introduction to Classical Tibetan Language. This course will not inform the students on how to speak modern colloquial Tibetan. A more advanced reading will be distributed so that the students will be able to gain greater practice in reading of texts.

Course Requirements

As the major purpose of this course is to have the student apply the Tibetan grammar during the reading of Tibetan texts, the final grade will be based upon the completion of the daily exercises, participation in the class, and comprehension of the contents of the readings. It is expected that the student will be able to identify the grammatical structure of Classical Tibetan .

In order to apply a letter grade for the course, students will be expected

- 1) to complete each assignment on a daily basis (50 points)
- 2) to participate in the classroom by having the daily exercises completed (40 points).
- 3) to submit a final clean copy of all exercises that have been corrected daily in the class (10 points)

Further information will be given in class.

There will be no Registrar scheduled final examination.

Grading

A numerical mark will be given for each course requirement. A letter grade will be assigned on the following number and letter grade scheme:

A+	100 - 97	A	96 – 93	A-	92 - 90
B+	89 - 85	B	84 – 80	B-	79 - 75
C+	74 - 70	C	69 – 65	C-	64 - 60
D+	59 - 56	D	54 – 50	F	49 or less

Academic Honesty

Students should be familiar with the University regulations regarding academic honesty.

Academic Accommodation:

If you are a student with a disability who requires academic accommodation and you have not registered with the Disability Resource Centre, please contact their office at 220-8237. Students who have not registered with the Disability Resource Centre are not eligible for formal academic accommodation. Once registered, please discuss any upcoming tests/examinations with the instructor two weeks before the scheduled date.

Withdrawing from courses:

Please note the information regarding withdrawals and fee refunds in the Academic Schedule of the current University Calendar.

Recording of lectures:

Recording any part of any lectures in any form must be first approved by the instructor in writing and is for individual private study only. See current Calendar, Tape recording of Lectures.

Safewalk Programme:

"You don't have to walk alone...." Call 220-5333 and a member of the Safewalk Team will walk you to your car, the LRT, or any destination on campus. Safewalk is available to all students, staff and faculty any time of the day or night. Look for the Campus Security Help Phones located throughout the University. Please don't hesitate to call!
