Course Description

CMCL 509 is an advanced course in peer mentoring focusing on researching peer mentoring programs at higher education institutes. This course also involves students in supporting peers with their learning processes using a facilitative, collaborative approach. Advanced peer mentors will have fewer hours of class time and approximately 50 hours per term allotted to service so that in addition to mentoring students in a host course, advanced mentors can assist new mentors to grow into their roles. Students will conduct their own textual and field research and present findings in a final class symposium at the end of the semester. The term project involves a small self-directed research project.

Additional Information

Registration is by application only. This course includes a 50-hour practicum as a peer mentor. Some class activities are performed outside of class hours in lieu of class time. Most of these activities are scheduled by students according to their availability.

Objectives of the Course

To either add a new part-time peer mentoring role as a mentor to new mentors in the program, and to take on a significantly different mentoring role than in the previous term.

To learn new concepts and philosophies of higher education learning, leadership communication and innovation by completing a research project which contributes to the expansion and strength of peer mentoring programs and courses.

To learn how to conduct secondary source research to answer a conceptual research question or to learn how to conduct primary research to answer a research question. To learn how different methodologies are used to conduct peer mentoring research.

To learn how to critically read, assess and revise education or disability policy.

Textbooks and Readings

Student Accommodations:

Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services; SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit www.ucalgary.ca/access/.

Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor. The full policy on Student Accommodations is available at http://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy.pdf.

Writing Skills Statement

Department policy directs that all written assignments (including, to a lesser extent, written exam responses) will be assessed at least partly on writing skills. Writing skills include not only surface correctness (grammar, punctuation, sentence structure, etc) but also general clarity and organization. Sources used in research papers must be properly documented. If you need help with your writing, you may use the Writing Centre. Visit the website for more details: http://www.ucalgary.ca/ssc/writing-support

Grading & Grade Scale of the Department of Communication, Media and Film Final grades are reported as letter grades. All assignment are graded by letter grade.

The following chart outlines the grade scale percentage equivalents used in the Department of Communication, Media and Film. In calculating final grades in this course, letter grades will be converted to the midpoint of the percentage range, as shown in the final column of the table below.

Grade Point Value	Description	Grade	Dept of CMF grade scale equivalents*	Letter grade % equivalent for calculations* *
4.00	Outstanding	A+	96 - 100%	98.0%
4.00	Excellent—superior performance, showing comprehensive understanding of subject matter.	Α	90 - 95.99%	93.0%
3.70		Α-	85 - 89.99%	87.5%
3.30		B+	80 - 84.99%	82.5%
3.00	Goodclearly above average performance with knowledge of subject matter generally complete.	В	75 - 79.99%	77.5%
2.70		B-	70 - 74.99%	72.5%

1.30	Minimal pass—marginal performance; generally insufficient preparation for subsequent courses in the same subject	D+	53 - 54.99%	54.0%
1.00		D	50 - 52.99%	51.5%
0.00	Fail – unsatisfactory performance or failure to meet course requirements.	F	0- 49.99%	0%

^{*} If percentages are used to calculate final grades, then grades falling within these ranges will be translated to the corresponding letter grades.

Plagiarism

Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offense. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university.

^{} These percentage equivalents will be used for calculating final grades unless an alternative method of final grade calculation is outlined above.

You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. In-text citations must be provided, and readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people's words and ideas begin. Wording taken directly from a source must be enclosed within quotation marks (or, for long quotations, presented in the format prescribed by the documentation style you are using). Paraphrased information must not follow the original wording and sentence structure with only slight word substitutions here and there. These requirements apply to all assignments and sources, including those in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media.

For information on citation and documentation styles (including APA, Chicago, IEEE, MLA, and others), visit the links provided at https://ucalgary.ca/ssc/resources/writing-support/436. If you have questions about how to document sources, please consult your instructor or the Writing Centre (3rd Floor TFDL, http://www.ucalgary.ca/ssc/writing-support).

Academic Misconduct

For information on academic misconduct and its consequences, please see the University of Calgary Calendar at http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html

Research Ethics

Whenever you perform research with human participants (e.g., surveys, interviews, or observations) as part of your university studies, you are responsible for following university research ethics guidelines. Your instructor must review and approve your research plans and supervise your research. For more information about your research ethics responsibilities, see http://arts.ucalgary.ca/research/resources/ethics

This course has ethics approval from the Faculty of Arts Research Ethics Board and invites students to conduct primary data collection involving surveys, interviews, focus groups, and structured methods. More information about the ethics consent form and the collection of primary data will be discussed in class.
